

Agent Opportunities

At Hudson Insurance Group we know how hard you have worked to manage your agency and cultivate your client base. Trust, knowledge of the agribusiness, financial stability and exceptional service standards are the expectations you demand from the company you align your clients with. Hudson Insurance Group shares your commitment to provide extraordinary customer service, state-of-the art processing and first-class claim service.

We offer our agents the following:

- Competitive commissions, including profit sharing

- A recognized insurance company – Hudson Insurance Company, a financially strong, rated "A" (Excellent) XV by A.M. Best Co., licensed in all states, except Maine.

- Association endorsement –With our support and the support of your state commodity association, we will work together to facilitate introductions of prospective clients to help you grow your book of business.

- Hudson Insurance Group utilizes local claim adjusters

- State-the-art marketing software, both in-house and in the field

- Ongoing training and education

- Support for trade associations and advertising through Hudson's Co-op program – based on premium and profitability volume